UNICEF donated 70 electronic tablets and accessories necessary for the implementation of the Akelius English program, at the Olivia Espinoza and Emiliano Zapata CASEFs.

Akelius is an application to facilitate the learning of English for children and adolescents, with a game-based methodology through writing, reading, vocabulary and listening.

In the last year, they worked with him in five social assistance centers to directly benefit 1,427 children between the ages of 6 and 17, including those from the “México Mi Hogar” shelter, reported Isabel Rodríguez from UNICEF.

“It is very important to strengthen ties with the institutions that watch over children and adolescents. We always work as a team and very closely to work for children so that they do not face deficiencies or limitations and have opportunities to live a full life free of violence”, indicated Maki Kato, representative of UNICEF Mexico.

For her part, the president of the DIF, Rubí Enríquez, mentioned that with this signature they formalize the collaborative work with UNICEF to transform the children of Juárez.

The municipal president, Cruz Pérez Cuéllar; Lucía Chavira, director of the DIF; Ignacio López Vergara, head of the UNICEF office in Ciudad Juárez and Gilberto Gutiérrez, deputy director of the DIF.
